Term 2 Week 1
‘Proud to be Toppy’

Message from my desk...........
Welcome back to Term 2.

I trust you all had a wonderful break over Easter and are looking forward to another busy term here at Toppy.

As many of you already know Miss Staples is away on leave and I am taking on the Relieving Principal role until her position is filled.

Your child’s education is our core business, please don’t hesitate to contact us at any time!

Everyone is someone at Wyalong Public School!

Toppy Times ARE Great Times!!!!
Melissa Blackwood - Relieving Principal

Have a great week - Melissa Blackwood!

School Cross Country:
Our School Cross Country will take place on Tuesday 28th April at the West Wyalong Country Club. All students will travel by bus to the venue from School. We will arrive and walk around the course for each age group, the students will have a short rest period and then the events will begin. A BBQ lunch organised by the P&C will be available after the races.
Cost of the bus is $2.00 per student. Sausage sandwiches are $2.00 and drinks are also $2.00 each.
A permission note was given out today, please return this with $2.00 by Monday 27th April.

School ANZAC Day Ceremony:
The School Ceremony will be held at School on Monday 27th April at 11.00am. We have a special guest speaker from Griffith District Office. Ms Allison Johnson will address the assembly and speak about the service of indigenous people.

Town ANZAC Day Ceremonies:
As usual we are asking students to represent our School in the Wyalong and West Wyalong ANZAC Day Ceremonies.
Students are asked to meet Mrs Low next to the Toppy Museum in Slee Street at 8.40am. Please be in full school uniform ready to march at 9.00am.
West Wyalong march will begin at the corner near the NAB and Westpac banks at 10.30am and proceed down Main Street and finish at the West Wyalong S&C Club.

West Wyalong High School – Combined School Concert:
A reminder that these performances will take place Friday 8th May and Saturday 9th May at the West Wyalong High School MPU.
Friday – 12 to 2.30 pm and 6.30pm performances.
Saturday – 6.30pm performances.
Students have been practicing and honing their skills for the concerts, your support to attend any of the concerts will be appreciated. Mrs Cooper will have more details closer to the concerts.

Canteen Winter Menu:
Please find below the winter menu list and also attached a few menus for the lunch order bags.

Term 2 Calendar:
Please find attached the Term 2 Calendar for your convenience. Please add events as they appear in the newsletters.

Don’t forget – P&C Meeting this Friday 24th April from 5.00 for 5.30pm
